

Wooden Shoe Hockey Tournament, 2000

By Cyril Fernando

Against a backdrop of blue skies, sunny 34-degree weather, and red sun-burned faces, the Annual Hockey tournament organized by the Dutch Hollandse Club of Singapore was a non stop event from 9 00 a.m to 5.30 in the evening.

Sixteen teams participated--- 8 men's and 8 women's. The bright red and orange jerseys, of the SRC and the Dutch teams respectively, to the black and white outfits of the Police, turned the CSC field into a colourful sea of activity from start to finish, with team change-overs executed in split second timing. Sixteen 11-a side teams played 25 minute games. With 8 referees and other officials, the number of participants easily exceeded two hundred.

Men's champions were Chenub with the gallant CSC conceding a last minute goal to emerge runners-up in a thrilling roller-coaster final. Police were in third position.

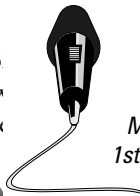

In the Ladies section, SCC I were champions with SRC 11 in 2nd place and Hollandse Club in third position. CSC were 4th.
